

Family Collage | What We're All About

Materials:

- Construction Paper/Scrapbook Paper
- Markers
- Gluestick

When you think of the word citizenship what comes to mind? Some people may think of one's birth country or naturalization. We like to think of citizenship as our responsibility to make our world a better place. Whether that's being a good friend or caring for our planet, we can all strive to be good citizens.

Instructions:

1. Read the story "What We're All About" from Sesame Street by scanning the QR code to see the interactive story. Read this story together with your child and answer the questions on each page.

2. Love, Curious, Determined, Kind, Honest, were some of the words in the story. Think of some additional words that define your family. What kind of qualities do you want your family and children to have?

3. Create a family collage using the materials supplied.

4. Write words that describe you as a family on your family collage.

5. Display your family collage in place where everyone can see it to serve as a reminder of how your children make a kinder, fairer, and respectful world.
